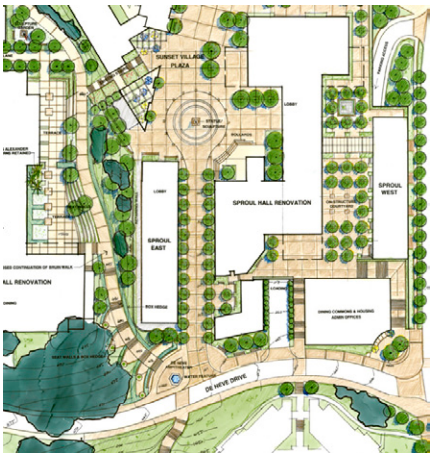
UCLA Northwest Campus Redevelopment Master Plan



The master planning of the entire northwest quadrant of the campus and landscape architectural services including the redesign and construction of undergraduate housing with an additional 2000 beds, a 248 car parking structure and associated academic, recreational and student programming facilities designed to integrate with the residential living experience, and provide an environment rich combination of spaces and activities that foster the vitality in on-campus residential life.

Location
Los Angeles, California
Client
Pfeiffer Partners Architects, Inc.
SWA Scope
Master planning
Size
11 acres
Architect
Pfeiffer Partners Architects, Inc.
Green/LEED-Rated Design Elements
The project was d.esigned, registered and built for LEED-UC Certification